AJE

- AJE = Association of Young Entrepreneurs.
- Regional organisations with 30+ years of history in Spain.
- Represents young entrepreneurs.
- Region of Murcia branch.

Who We Are – AJE RM in a Nutshell

- Independent non-profit organisation representing young entrepreneurs in the Region of Murcia.
- 300+ members (of all ages).
- Part of a national and European network (CEAJE, YES for Europe).
- Two identities:
 - Business community (peer support, networking, training).
 - Institutional actor (representation before regional institutions and political bodies).

Our Reason for Existing: Why AJE Matters

- To make entrepreneurship easier
- To help entrepreneurs survive and grow
- To represent the voice of young entrepreneurs
- To create prosperity and retain talent in the Region of Murcia

What We Do: Key Lines of Action

- Training: skills, management, innovation, marketing, leadership.
- Networking: connecting entrepreneurs to each other and to institutions.
- Visibility: highlighting success stories and local innovation.
- Representation: being the voice of young businesses in decision-making spaces.

- Participation in the Regional and National CSR Conference

UM has taken part in the seven editions of our CSR Conference, contributing both moderators and speakers.

AJE RM and UM

- UMUemprende – Entrepreneurial Idea Juries

We collaborate with UMUemprende by participating in various juries and panels that evaluate and award entrepreneurial ideas.

- Faculty of Labour Sciences – Annual Entrepreneurship Stand

Every year we attend with an AJE stand to promote entrepreneurship, offer support, and collect CVs for our employment pool.

AJE RM and UM

- Collaboration with Faculties on Demand

We also work with different faculties on various initiatives whenever required, supporting academic and entrepreneurial projects.

- Joint Events and Youth Entrepreneurship Activities

We have co-organised events such as the EJE (Youth Entrepreneurship Project) day, in collaboration with the University Social Centre and UMUemprende, featuring round tables and short training sessions to encourage youth entrepreneurship.
